The first two sentences of Paragraph #2 contain conclusions of law, to which no response is required, except Defendant admits that Plaintiff filed a Charge of Discrimination with the United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. 5. The first sentence of Paragraph #5 and all characterizations therein are denied, except that Defendant admits that a meeting was held with Division staff throughout the State on or about February 9, 2007, and that, during that meeting, she announced that various administrative and policy changes were being made at the Division. The second sentence of Paragraph #5 is denied.

AS AND FOR A FOURTH DEFENSE

16. Defendant acted under the objectively reasonable belief that her acts were proper and in contravention of no clearly established law, and, thus, she is immune from liability in this action.

AS AND FOR A FIFTH DEFENSE

17. 42 U.S.C. § 1983 provides the exclusive remedy against State actors.

AS AND FOR A SIXTH DEFENSE

18. Plaintiff's request for damages is barred for, among other reasons, her failure to mitigate her damages.

AS AND FOR A SEVENTH DEFENSE

19. Plaintiff's claims are barred and/or limited by the doctrines of estoppel, waiver, and/or unclean hands.

AS AND FOR AN EIGHTH DEFENSE

20. Plaintiff's claims are baseless, and do not warrant any relief including but not limited to compensatory damages, punitive damages or attorneys fees.

WHEREFORE, Defendant demands judgment dismissing the Second Amended Complaint, together with such other relief as the Court deems proper.
